Parenting with Aphasia communication group

Lauren A Schwabish M.S., CCC-SLP
Inspired by LG
Young stroke survivors have unique needs
Loss of employment
Loss of employment
Financial stress
Limited peer support

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com
- Loss of employment
- Financial stress
- Limited peer support
- Reduced self-confidence, self-esteem

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com
Loss of employment

Financial stress

Limited peer support

Reduced self-confidence, self-esteem

Change in life roles, relationships

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com
Loss of employment
Financial stress
Limited peer support
Reduced self-confidence, self-esteem
Change in life roles, relationships
Family stress

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com
Loss of employment
Financial stress
Limited peer support
Reduced self-confidence, self-esteem
Change in life roles, relationships
Family stress
Post-stroke depression and anxiety

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Loss of employment</th>
<th>Financial stress</th>
<th>Limited peer support</th>
<th>Reduced self-confidence, self-esteem</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Change in life roles, relationships</td>
<td>Family stress</td>
<td>Post-stroke depression and anxiety</td>
<td>Ongoing need for therapy and resources over time</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Source: Evidence-Based Review of Stroke Rehabilitation, updated March 2018; ebsr.com
Demands of Parenting are intense
Little Kids
Bigger Kids
The Parenting with Aphasia group experience
Where We Start

- Name
- Kid Info
- Positive
- Challenge/Frustration
Where We Go
Challenges
They felt so supported, loved the tips and tricks. It made such a difference to know that others have gone through what they are experiencing now.